Take comfort in continuous communications With GLENTEL's Reliable Care.

Communication is key in any industry. We understand the impact downtime can have on your operations and bottom-line. GLENTEL can't guarantee your radio won't break down but we can guarantee you protection against the unexpected cost of repairs. That's why GLENTEL has developed Reliable Care extended warranty plans.

This exclusive support program offers the reassurance that your wireless communication solution is running at optimum performance. Reliable Care helps lower your total cost of ownership, protect your investment and ultimately provides you with peace of mind.

With the Reliable Care plans our manufacturer trained and experienced technicians will test and maintain your wireless communication infrastructures, so you maintain peak performance.

With three support programs you can choose the level of coverage that best suits your needs.

- Reliable Care Basic offers hardware protection coverage beyond manufacturer warranty with priority service and annual preventative maintenance.
- Reliable Care Plus all the benefits of Basic, plus physical damage protection.
- Reliable Care Premium is a customized support plan for your entire communication infrastructure with maintenance and support.

Example: 24 x 7 x 365 Support, Remote Monitoring, Wireless Networks, Dispatch, Paging, MPT, VHF, Professional Services

Take comfort in continuous communications by relying on Glentel.

Limited costs. Unlimited value.

GLENTEL offers three service programs, Reliable Care Basic, Reliable Care Plus and Reliable Care Premium, giving you the flexibility of choice for the support you need. Each program goes beyond the basic manufacturer warranty and allows for:

- Customized Service Level Agreements
- Single point of contact for all products within your solution - GLENTEL
- Priority service to our Reliable Care subscribers
- All parts and labour included, including antennas, batteries and chargers
- Annual Preventative Maintenance
- Call management
- Required spares on hand

When it comes to "Peace of Mind", GLENTEL has you covered.

Benefits at a glance.

- Maximum cost control thanks to fully transparent overview of costs and services
- Maximum quality guaranteed through highly skilled professionals
- Maximum protection
- Maximum flexibility
- Improved productivity and efficiency
- Enhanced end user service and security

When it comes to "Peace of Mind" Glentel has you covered.

ACTIVATE ELEVATE ENGAGE

Relationship activation starts early. It takes energy to make appointments, to decorate the showroom, and to educate the entire dealership staff about the event. It takes energy to deliver a passionate goodbye sales message with a test drive and personal service to every customer. Why every customer? Because we believe that every customer is a buyer, and when we believe, we do the work, and that work sells cars.

ACTIVATE ELEVATE ENGAGE

In the "real world" there is a gap between technology and the car buying transaction. The bridge to that gap is a relationship, a quality engagement with a professional salesperson who knows and acts right, selling a car. A sales professional who uses their knowledge, soft skills, and techniques will ensure the story of the sale and empower the customer to believe that purchasing is the right thing to do.
